

Car Crashes Into Motel, Natural Gas Line

A car driven by Jeff Osga, 22, a former Frederic resident, crashed into a wall of the Cedar Motel and ruptured a gas line. Occupants of the motel and a gas station attendant at the Clark were evacuated from the area until the gas line was repaired.

Osga allegedly was driving through the parking lot of the Clark station when he lost control of the vehicle sending it into the motel wall. He was taken to Mercy Hospital for treatment of minor injuries. Three passengers, Frederic residents, were not injured according to a Crawford County Sheriff Dept. and Grayling City Police report. The accident occurred Thursday at 10:18 p.m.

Airport To Receive New Lighting

The Grayling McNamara Airport will have new lighting installed along its primary runway costing $77,000. The new lighting will replace edge lighting along runway 3214. Airport officials said the existing lighting is old, has bad wiring, and is lower intensity than the new system.

Michigan Dept. of Transportation funds will pay one-half of the costs and local funds will pay the other half. The new system will be installed in June by a Wyoming, Michigan company.

The Grayling airport has four runways. Two are not lighted.

24 B & E's Solved by Sheriff Department

Twenty four breaking and enterings in the AuSable Woods area off Jones Lake Road were solved last week by the Crawford County Sheriff Dept. Two juveniles were arrested in connection with the B & E's. Sheriff deputies said mostly cabins and travel trailers were broken into. Many were owned by downstate residents.

The sheriff dept. is currently investigating more breaking and enterings in the Big Creek area near Lovells and near Wendy Lane in Grayling Twp. Anyone with information about suspicious activity in these areas should call the sheriff dept.

Last Wednesday, Cooper's Country Store in Frederic was broken into and four cases of beer were taken. A 21-year-old man was arrested in connection with the burglary and the beer was recovered.

In other police news, about 40 law enforcement officers attended a two-day seminar at the Holiday Inn sponsored by KCC and the Crawford County Sheriff Dept. The course covered civil liability incurred in the law enforcement field.

City Clean-Up Planned for May

In connection with the annual City of Grayling spring clean-up, the Grayling Police Department will begin a survey of unregistered or junk vehicles, accumulated debris, and unsafe structures in business and residential areas.

In attempting to improve the community image, notices will be mailed to owners or tenants of businesses and private residents having vehicles, debris, or other questionable material on their property.

Chief of Police, Pete Stephan, requests citizens to join in this year's clean-up. Anyone wishing information on disposing junk may contact the city office, 348-2131. The city is aiming for a more attractive appearance in preparation for Michigan Week May 17.

South Branch Police Protection Hearing May 11

A hearing will be held at the South Branch Township Hall to discuss a millage proposal for year-round police protection.

A petition last fall asked for a millage proposal to be placed on a ballot to provide funds for year-round police protection in the township. The petition was too late last fall for a millage on 1981 taxes so the township will be bringing the proposal up again at its May 11 meeting for a public hearing.

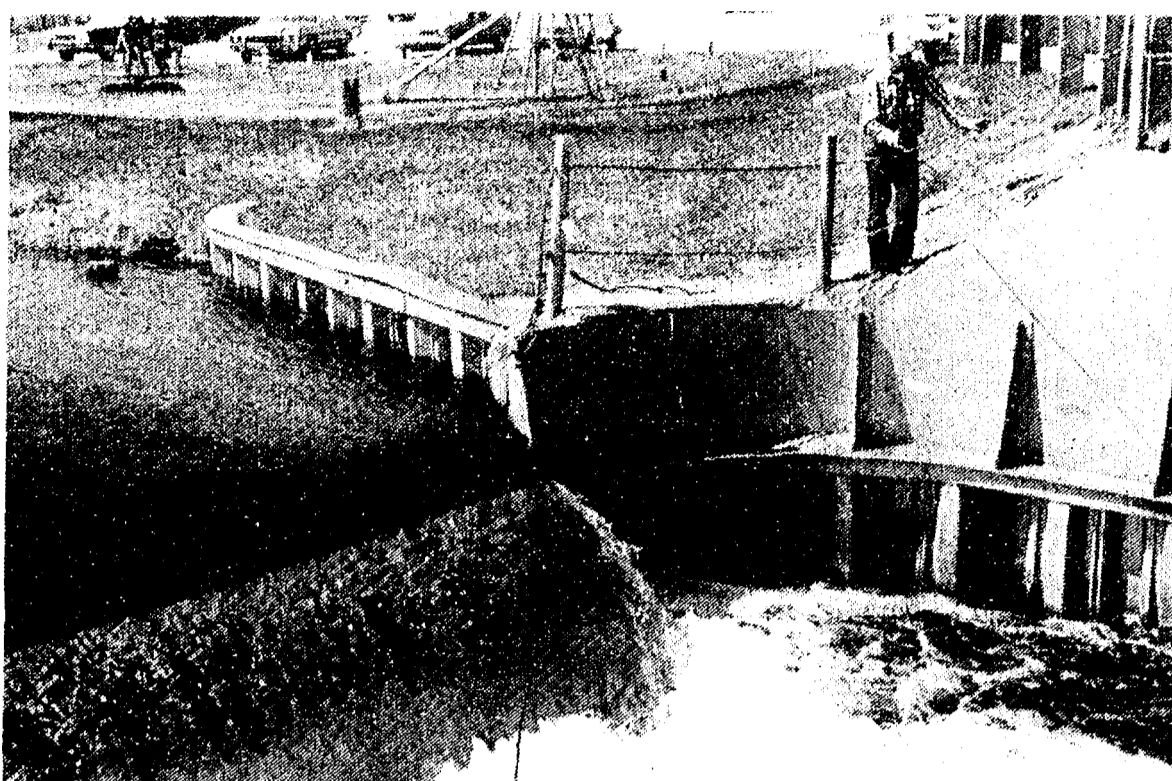

Supervisor George Rybicki is expected to have some preliminary figures for costs of police protection.

In other S. Branch news, the township board at their April meeting decided there wasn't enough money this year to build a fire building in the northern part of the township. Several tankers and other fire equipment needed improvements and the board decided to spend the available money in these areas.

BEST FISHING AROUND—Some of the best fishing reported Opening Day weekend was right in the City of Grayling. Here a fisherman tries his luck beneath the fall next to the city park. Local fishermen are looking forward to more fly hatches this week and better fishing.

Poor Opener; Better 2nd Weekend Forecast

By Jon Thompson

Sunshine and 70 degree temperatures greeted trout fishermen on Opening Day Saturday, but the fish refused to join in making it a spectacular day.

With water levels up and patches of snow still left in the woods, few fish were reported caught over the weekend.

Skip Madsen, of Skip's Sport Shop, said about 15 fish were brought into his place during the weekend. The largest was 20 inches and most were 16-17 inches.

"All of them were caught with bait," Madsen said. "Minnows seemed to do the best in the upper part of the AuSable, especially in town."

Not much was reported in the Manistee or farther down on the mainstream.

Tim Neal, of the Old AuSable Sporting Goods, said there weren't many fly hatches over the weekend. During six hours of fishing on the north branch and mainstream he saw only two fish surface feed.

Madsen said it was too windy and the water temperature was too cold for much success fly fishing last weekend. He said with more warm weather this weekend could produce good fishing for both fly fishermen and bait fishing.

Neal expects the fly hatches to start in abundance soon. He reported the number of fishermen he saw at the river Saturday and Sunday was down from previous years.

"It's been so cold for so long, a lot of downstate fishermen were probably sure it was going to be a poor opener and stayed home," Madsen.

The opener came early this year and some fishermen tried their luck on smelt and steelhead, he added. The smelt and steelhead runs are usually over by trout opener but cold water temperatures delayed them this year. Madsen said he had a report Sunday that smelt are running in the U.P. for local fishermen that head in that direction for smelt.

KCC Foundation Fundraising For Registered Nurse Program

The Kirtland Community College Foundation has launched a fund drive aimed at raising nearly $200,000 to start a registered nurse program.

KCC proposes to add a registered nurse program to its existing licensed practical nurse program.

Together, the two will be offered as a two-year ladder program. Students completing one year will qualify to take a Licensed Practical Nurse (L.P.N.) state test. Students completing two years will qualify to take a Registered Nurse (R.N.) state test. L.P.N.'s and students already enrolled in nursing programs can be admitted into the second year or second level of the program.

An Associate Degree in nursing will be awarded to graduates of the proposed program.

KCC wants to add the registered nurse program because of the lack of R.N.'s in the area. A 1980 survey of 11 hospitals, nursing homes, and health departments in Crawford, Roscommon, Ogemaw, Otsego, Isosco, and Missaukee counties showed 87 job openings for R.N.'s. The survey projected at least 62 full-time job openings and 29 part-time job openings in the next two years.

The survey also showed 69 L.P.N.'s in the area were interested in the registered nurse program. Sixty-seven high school juniors also indicated interest in the Associate Degree Nursing program.

Equipment and personnel costs to start the registered nursing program are estimated at nearly $200,000. The KCC Foundation has started a drive to raise money for the program. Anyone wishing to contribute to the drive can write to the KCC Foundation at Rt. 4, Box 59A, Roscommon, MI 48653, or contact local members of the Foundation, trustees Arnold Bader, John Cherven, and Peter Allen, from Grayling.

St. John Lutheran Observe 90th Anniversary

St. John Lutheran Congregation observed a 90th Anniversary on Sunday, April 25, 1982. Guest speaker for the day was Rev. Carl Heidel, Gaylord, whose theme came from "Life, the priority we received from the Easter Story", which tells it all for that first congregation that came together because of their deep Christian Faith.

The Danish Lutheran Charter was formed April 24, 1892 and the first Church Board consisted of Olaf Sorenson, acting Chairman, Henry Petersen, Rasmus Rasmussen, Severin Jensen, Andrew Mortenson. All through those early years, the Service was in the Danish language. In February, 1963 the name of the Church was formally changed to St. John Lutheran.

A beautiful, delicious cake, made by Eileen Chapel was the special treat at Coffee Hour, following the Service.

The Choir Anthem, "How Great Thou Art" and the closing hymn, "O God Our Help in Ages Past" said it in music that all participated in.

Co. Adopts Equalized Values; Up 11.3% Over Last Year

The Crawford County Board of Commissioners adopted equalized values for the county last Thursday totaling $157,693,882, an increase of 11.3 percent over last year's totals.

The county now sends the figures to Lansing, who can approve them or even add to them.

Excluding new construction in the county, property values only increased 8.3 percent over last year.

The board approved the new figures by a 5-2 vote with commissioners Larry Mattis and Andie Neilson voting no. The county values have to be sent to Lansing by May 3.

Commissioner Mattis and Equalization Director Larry Hunter will travel to Lansing May 14 when the decision is made on county equalized values. The state usually approves the county's values and does not add factors.

A Beaver Creek resident attending the county meeting said the amount of state land in the county is killing taxpayers here. He said because the tax base is so small we have to pay more for basic services. He said when he lived downstate he paid less and had water, sewage, and garbage pick-up. In Beaver Creek, there's no water, or sewage services and he has to drive five miles to dump garbage. Approximately 68 percent of Crawford County is state land.

Equalized values in Grayling Township accounted for about 37 percent of the total in the county. The City of Grayling accounted for about 14 percent, South Branch Township 13 percent, Frederic 12.5 percent, Lovells 11 percent, Beaver Creek 9 percent, and Maple Forest 3.5 percent.

School Bd. Tackles Budget, Millage Proposal Monday

A special meeting of the Crawford AuSable Board of Education is scheduled for May 3 to adopt a preliminary budget for next year and decide on a millage proposal for the June school election.

The school board has to come up with a millage proposal at the May 3 meeting to meet a filing deadline for the June election. A millage of 17.9 mills approved last June by voters is expiring in June.

Armed with county equalization values adopted by Commissioners last Thursday, school officials will be able to estimate revenues brought in by different millage rates. The county equalized values are subject to change, however, by the tax commission in Lansing.

The tax commission will hand down their decision by May 14. The Board of Education has to decide on a millage proposal by May 3 in order to place it on the June annual school election.

Along with a millage proposal, the board is scheduled to adopt a preliminary budget. Last year, the board had to lay off more than 20 instructors, increased class sizes in all schools, closed Frederic Elementary, closed the libraries, and cut funding for athletics and other extra-curricular activities.

Board of Education President Kathleen Burkley said the May 3 meeting will be extremely important and some important decisions will be made then. She said board members are working on the budget and school district residents are encouraged to call or write board members to let their feelings be known concerning school programs.

Riders Supporting C.C.P.T.

In four days, more than 100 letters were written to Lansing legislators by Crawford County Public Transit riders expressing concern about possible funding cuts.

Manager Chet Johnston told county commissioners last Thursday a 35 percent cut in federal revenues is coming in October. He said a drastic cut in state funding could reduce services here. He said some routes such as

M-72 east would be in danger of being dropped if the state pinches funds.

Dial-A-Ride drivers, dispatchers, and mechanics started a letter-writing campaign to let their legislators know about the problem. On April 19, riders were asked to write letters and after only four days, more than 100 persons responded.

Johnston said after the federal ax falls in October as many as 50 percent of all the rural bus systems will fail.

Johnston also presented some good news about the system at the commissioners meeting. He said the Dept. of Social Services have agreed to use C.C.P.T. to transport clients to work sites. The arrangement will take the place of reimbursing clients for miles driven to and from work.

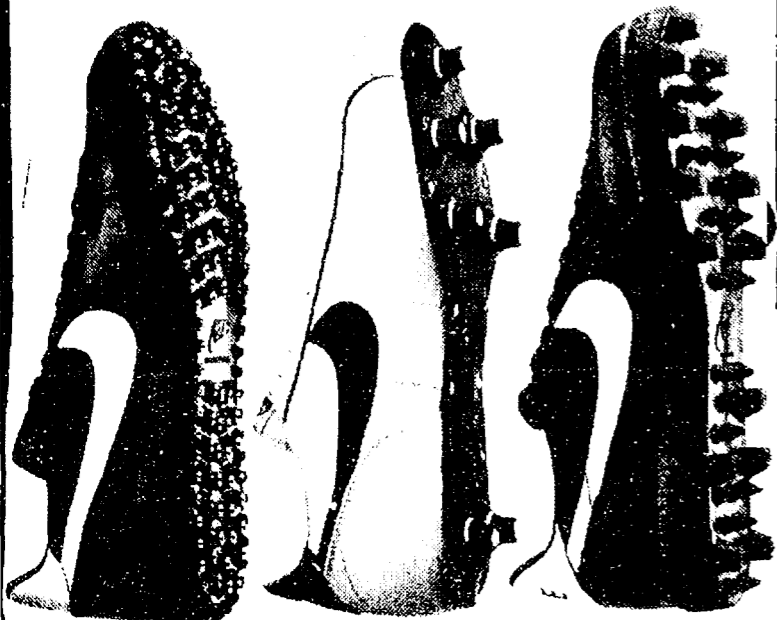

Johnston said C.C.P.T. has been pursuing this type of arrangement with DSS for three years.

In other county news, chairperson Jeannette Kitchen brought back good news from a seminar on handicaps held in Madison, Wisconsin.

She said Crawford County has few problems concerning access for handicaps. Under a federal law, any place receiving federal assistance or employing 15 or more persons has to be barrier-free or accessible to handicaps. Kitchen said most county buildings meet the requirements. She said the only place not accessible right now is the lower portion of the county courthouse. She said the county may have to move meetings from the basement or put in a lift.

103 YEARS—The Crawford County Sheriff Dept. celebrated their 103rd anniversary with a reception at the county courthouse last Thursday. Sheriff Joe White receives a plaque from chairperson of the County Board of Commissioners, Jeannette Kitchen.

From Our Corner ...

No complaints from this department about the weather this week...the past weekend was the most perfect one we have experienced since last summer...possibly we are on our way to our summer season...

The weather cooperated with the opening of trout season to complete a perfect weekend...now if we can just have some warm rains to green up the grass and cut down on forest fires, of which we have been notified that the woods are tinder dry and a no burning warning has been issued...this includes in the city as well as out in the county...

We're trying to put our corner together on Sunday afternoon, contemplating a busy Monday...and right now it is becoming difficult due to the weather...spring fever is getting to us...so it is mighty possible that this column will be much shorter than normal...we may get an ad to fill up the rest of the space...

Ann Stephenson, of Crawford County 4-H, brought the following into the office last week to help the ol' fellas out...we thought it was cute, so we pass it on to our readers...

Learning Disability

HOUSTON(AP)—The parent of a Houston high school pupil received a message from the principal about a special meeting on a proposed educational program.

It read:

"Our school's cross-graded, multi-ethnic, individualized learning program is designed to enhance the concept of an open-ended learning program with emphasis on a continuum of multi-ethnic, academically enriched learning using the identified intellectually gifted child as the agent or director of his own learning.

"Major emphasis is on cross-graded, multi-ethnic learning with the main objective being to learn respect for the uniqueness of a person."

The parent wrote the principal:

"I have a college degree, speak two foreign languages and four Indian dialects, have been to a number of county fairs and three goat ropings, but I haven't the faintest idea as to what the hell you are talking about. Do you?"

We were asked to put the following public notice in our column...normally we don't, but we are in favor of this petition and want to have it enacted...Will all the persons who have the petition on the Swamp Tax amendment please turn them in to Dick Wieber as soon as possible. The petition need not be filled up...just turn them in...

Spring fever caught up to us...we're headed for the wagon shed and I'm thinking there is going to be a couple of Honey-Do jobs when we get home this afternoon...goodnight T.J., Stef, and Amber...and to all our readers have a nice weekend...looks like we are coming out of the winter doldrums...

To Charley Fehr goes the credit for a handsome contribution to our city park in the form of a bird house for martins that is especially well-built and very large. Just now it is on display at the City Hall but later on will be turned over to the Grayling Civic Improvement League to be placed in the city park.

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

False Sanctification or Holiness

Being raised in "holiness" churches as a boy, I can personally testify to their false teaching of Sanctification as a second work of grace. They divide believers into those who are just "saved" and the more spiritual and mature believers who have been "sanctified." It is a Bible misunderstanding that a believer can go forward in a church service, kneel at an altar of prayer until God gives him a gift of grace which will enable him to arise and depart that church never to sin again. Such false teaching ignores God's Holy standard and sin's identity.

1. "The thought of foolishness is sin" Proverbs 24:9a. Can any Christian claim to have never had a foolish thought?

2. "For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body." James 3:2. Do you know of a single Christian who has never offended anyone by spoken words? Do you know a perfect Christian who always speaks the right words?

3. "Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin" Eccl. 5:6. Do you know a Christian who has never failed to keep a promise under any circumstance?

4. Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin." James 4:17. Do you know any Christians who always do what they know they should be doing? They always pray enough? They always read their Bibles enough? They always witness the gospel of Christ to others? They never lie? They never get mad? They always love the Lord with all their strength? They always love their neighbors as much as they do themselves?

5. "Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law." I John 3:4. What Christian can say he never breaks one of God's laws in the Bible. First, he must know every command of God in the Bible before he can obey them perfectly. Second, if he fails on one law he has broken them all. "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all." James 2:10.

6. "And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin." Romans 14:23. Do you know any Christians who know and believe every verse and word of the Bible perfectly so as not to doubt the Bible concerning anything?

7. "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." Romans 3:23. What is the glory of God that all of us come short of? "And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth." John 1:14. Our standard is the Lord Jesus Christ. Any person who does not live as perfect as Jesus Christ is a sinner. That is why all of us are sinners who need a savior, Jesus Christ. (adv.)

Population Explosion
It has been estimated that before the beginnings of agriculture—some 8,000 years ago—the world probably supported no more than five to 10 million people. By A.D. 1, this probably ranged from 200 to 400 million people. In 1750, the human population neared 800 million. By 1850, it was 1.3 billion people, which nearly doubled by 1950. In 1975, there were about 3.9 billion people on our planet and some 7 billion people will live on earth by 2,000 A.D.

Tim Miller Phi Beta Kappa

ALMA-Timothy Miller, an Alma College senior from Grayling, is one of six Alma students selected this year for membership in Phi Beta Kappa, America's most prestigious scholastic honorary society. The new members, all seniors, were selected on the basis of their outstanding academic achievement in the traditional arts, sciences and humanities.

Eligible seniors must have 99 credits in liberal subjects among the 136 credits needed for graduation. Eligibility also requires at least a 3.75 grade point average (GPA) for a junior and a 3.50 GPA for a senior in liberal subjects and studies (excluding grades in applied or professional areas), and generally, a year of college mathematics and proficiency in a foreign language through the intermediate level.

Nationwide, approximately eight percent of the eligible students are selected for membership by the 228 chapters. Phi Beta Kappa, founded in 1776, has as its purpose "to encourage excellence in liberal arts education." Alma's Phi Beta Kappa chapter, Eta of Michigan, was installed in April 1980 and this is the third year new members have been selected at Alma.

Timothy, a 1978 graduate of Essexville Garber High School, is the son of John and Peggy Miller, Rt. 3, Box 3361A, Grayling. He is majoring in both history and economics and is a candidate for a bachelor of arts degree in Alma's 1982 Commencement on April 17.

GARDEN

Gardening Is More Than 'Green Thumb' Project

Whether the project is to raise vegetables or flowers, there is no such thing as a "green thumb." We are all prone, when we see a beautiful garden or enter a home where every room seems alive with greenery, to say, "My, you do have a green thumb, don't you?"

The neighbor who grows the largest tomatoes and the prettiest flowers in his outdoor garden is not successful because he was blessed with a magic touch. He succeeds because he does things properly. He knows his soil, he corrects deficiencies through amendments, he plants when the time is right, and protects whatever he grows from weeds and insects.

Successful gardening isn't an accident. The soil is right because it has been made right through analysis and the addition of necessary amendments. Vegetables and flowers are hardiest and grow their best when planted at the proper time — late enough to be safe from the last heavy frost and early enough to enjoy a full growing season before the heat of summer begins to take its toll. Vegetables and flowers also do their best when they don't have to compete with weeds and grass for available moisture and nourishment, and when they are protected from insects.

If you're interested in growing things, develop your green thumb. You'll find books on gardening at the local public library or bookstore. Your county agent will tell you what you need to do to correct any deficiencies. Your seed merchant will provide the seeds and advice on planting, although it's usually printed on every package you buy. You'll also find that any neighbor who gardens will be glad to offer good advice. The weed problem is something you have to take care of on your own.

Grayling Student Helps Cambodian with Studies

ALMA-Joan Baynham of Grayling has probably made several new friends during her junior year at Alma College, but few of them are as important to her as Meng Nheng Phou.

Joan, an elementary education major at Alma, became acquainted with Meng Nheng when she responded to a campus call for volunteer tutors to assist Cambodian children who, having recently arrived in America, needed help with their schoolwork.

Meng Nheng, 15, is a student in Alma Public Schools, and he arrived in the United States with his parents, two brothers, and two sisters in August 1980. His formal education had stopped in 1975 when the Khmer Rouge soldiers of Pol Pot overran Cambodia, murdered millions of people, and forced the survivors to work on farms. Meng Nheng and his family eventually fled to Thailand and lived in refugee camps there until parishioners of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Alma made possible their resettlement in America.

Last fall members of St. Mary's and three other sponsoring churches appealed to Alma College students to help young Cambodians in the community with their adjustment to American education.

Joan, a Grayling High School graduate and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Baynham of rural Grayling, became involved in the tutoring after a friend told her about Meng Nheng and his need for help. Usually the sessions involve work on spelling, grammar, and mathematics; but Joan remembers one occasion when, after finishing the academic subjects, Meng Nheng wanted to teach her karate.

There has been significant improvement in Meng Nheng's work since the tutoring began. "He's speaking English better every day," Joan says, "and he knows grammar very well now, also."

The tutoring has helped Joan, too. "I've learned a great deal about Meng Nheng's culture," she says, "and about his family's past." Learning about the Phou family's experiences during and after the Pol Pot reign of terror has renewed her appreciation for many things which Americans have come to take for granted.

In 1979 Meng Nheng's brother, Meng Leng, 21, arrived in Mt. Pleasant and shortly afterward made contacts with potential sponsors for the rest of his family, making it possible for his parents and younger brothers and sisters to leave a crowded camp in Thailand and become the first family of Cambodian refugees to settle in Alma. He persuaded another Catholic congregation in the village of Beal City to sponsor the family of his older brother.

Subsequently, friends in Alma helped to find sponsoring churches in the area to reunite the Phous with five more families of relatives, including that of an older sister.

"Meng Nheng and I have learned from one another," Joan says, "and it's been a great experience."

Payless Payday Near Without Tax Hike: Milliken

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Director, MPA

Making another pitch for legislation approval of a six-month income tax increase, Governor William G. Milliken has warned that the state could face some payless paydays.

Giving the Legislature a May 1 deadline for approval of a 1 per-cent income tax increase, retroactive from April 1 to September 30, Milliken said the state is living on borrowed time as far as its financial responsibilities are concerned.

The state had payless paydays during the G. Mennen Williams administration which resulted from a dispute between a Republican Legislature and the Democratic governor.

Milliken said that was a contrived crisis, but added that the state's problems now are real. If the proposed financial package is not in place by May 1, he said the state will have lost another month's revenue and would be unable to afford to make revenue sharing, university and school aid payments.

If the package is not approved, he added, the first sign of failure would be a downgrading of the state's credit rating.

Previous action by the House to approve the temporary 1 per-cent tax hike in the income tax appears to have bought the state some time relative to the state's credit rating.

Budget officials also said another important aspect in staving off a critical review of the state's credit rating was approval by the full Legislature of the 10-cent per pack boost in the cigarette tax with the revenue solely devoted to restoring the state's cash position.

In another move reflecting the state's financial condition, the governor is telling state department directors to prepare layoff plans for their employees and to turn those plans into his office.

At the same time, a federal mediator has joined the effort to get agreement between the state and the largest state employee union, the Michigan State Employees Association.

Milliken's legal advisor, Peter Ellsworth, said ordering the layoff plans to be prepared is not a "tactical" maneuver to put pressure on wage concession talks.

"The longer we wait, the more people are going to be affected by the layoffs," he said noting that once the layoff plans are in hand, the actual layoff notices could be issued very quickly.

Stanley Kravit, head of the Office of State Employer, said the statement did not mean that layoffs were a foregone conclusion. But "we're not doing anybody a favor by waiting" any longer before getting the notices ready, he said.

Kravit said it is the governor's feeling that the state can no longer wait before getting the notices ready, "it's just a fact of life. There comes a point when you have to make a move. We've given changes for the talks to succeed, and they may yet succeed, but we have to be ready," Kravit said.

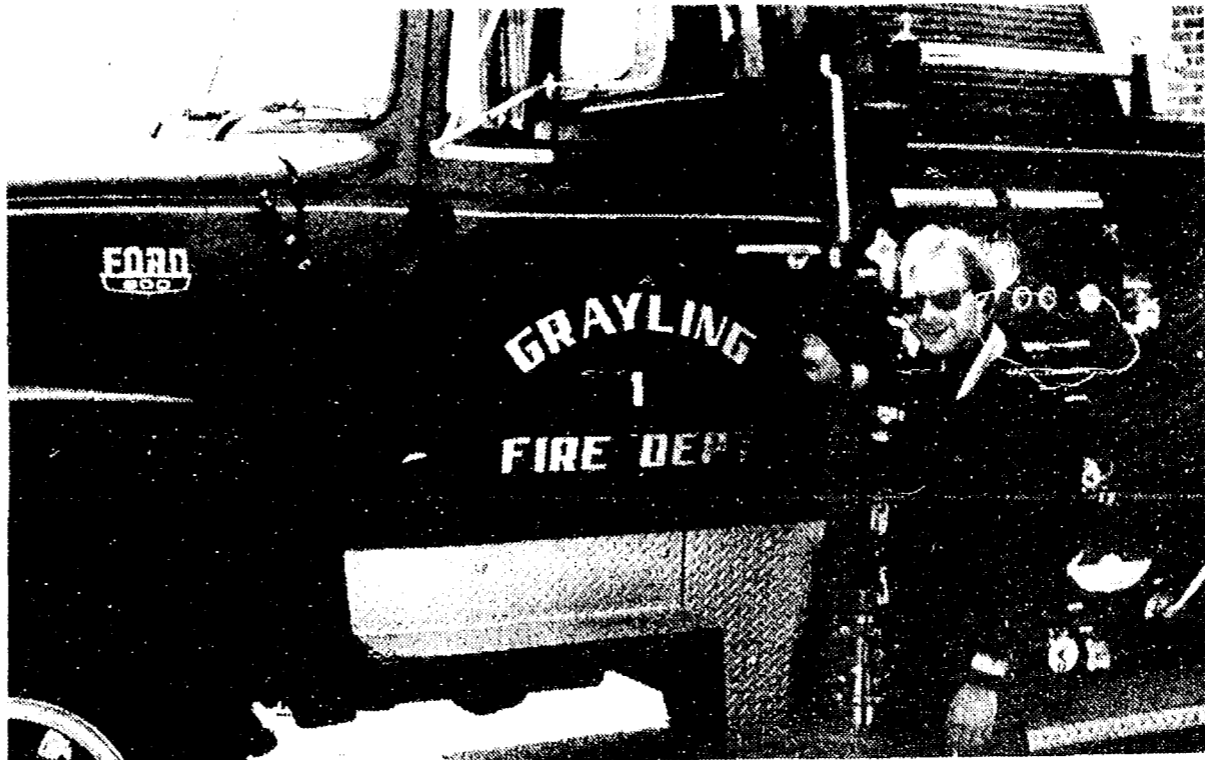

The Milliken administration is also asking the Civil Service Commission to direct that the 16,000 non-union civil service workers either take six on-day layoffs for the rest of the fiscal year (through September 30) or work 55 hours without pay, banking that time for future compensation.

Bad Winter for Roads

If you thought the winter of 1981-82 was bad you are right and the cost figures for snow and ice control and removal on the state's highway system prove it.

The Department of Transportation has reported that costs to control snow and ice on the highway system jumped more than 25 percent this winter compared to the previous year.

The department reported spending $38 million for winter maintenance for 9,450 miles of highway, compared to $30.1 million in 1980-81.

SPRUNGING UP FIRE EQUIPMENT—A Grayling Fire Dept. volunteer fireman, Jon Smock, cleans a truck during a recent warm spring day. The Grayling City and Township Fire Dept., headed by Fire Chief Tony Doremire, will be providing fire protection to Weyerhaeuser's new $60 million plant under a three month pact signed last week with Beaver Creek Township. The Grayling dept. has 20 volunteer firemen.

RSVP Report- RSVP Reports

by Sherry Haag, Dir.

Welcome to news of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program. This week I'd like to discuss how RSVP works.

RSVP is a community program with the community determining the focus of the project and sharing in the cost of operation. Public and private non-profit organizations may apply as sponsors to operate local RSVP projects. Successful RSVP sponsor applicants receive technical assistance and up to 90% of their support from ACTION the first year. RSVP sponsors are responsible for overall operation of a project and for generating local community support both cash and in-kind. RSVP sponsors include state, city, and county governments, universities and colleges, community organizations and senior service organizations.

Projects vary in size, with anywhere from 100 to 5,000 volunteers who contribute an average of 4 hours per week. RSVP volunteers work without pay or stipends, although some receive reimbursement for transportation or meals. RSVP is a cost effective program. Volunteers contribute about $7.00 worth of services for every dollar the program costs. Volunteers presently contribute about 52 million hours of service a year, a contribution worth $167,000,000. If the hours of service are calculated at the minimum wage. But this is a conservative estimate to say the least, considering the fact that many volunteers possess a level of skill and experience that would cost a premium if it were not contributed on a volunteer basis. At present, there are approximately 200 RSVP volunteers in Crawford County.

Don't forget, May 7, 1982 is the RSVP Recognition Dinner. All volunteers who have served 30 hours or more will be guests of RSVP. All others, $5.00 for tickets. Place: Holiday Inn, Time: 6 p.m.-6:30 dinner. We'll be needing volunteers for the decorations committee. If you're interested, give us a call at 348-4341.

We receive requests from the Homemaking Service for people who are interested in being a friendly visitor or telephone reassurance caller. If you might like to do this, give us a call at 348-4341.

Keep in mind: Hartwick Pines and the Historical Museum will be opening soon. If you'd like to serve at either of these stations, give us a call.

Vikes Outhit Onaway, Lose 8-7

The Grayling High School baseball team outhit Onaway in their season opener but wound up one run short losing 8-7.

The Vikings had 11 hits to only 5 by Onaway and head coach Fred Wolcott said mental mistakes beat Grayling.

Grayling started scoring in the first inning. Ted Methner singled and stole second before Monte D'Amour drove him home with a single.

Onaway countered in the second and then blasted Grayling for 6 runs in the third. Two mental mistakes—the pitcher not covering first and the second basemen not covering first on a bunt—put two runners aboard. Then a three-run home run cleared the bases.

Grayling pecked away at the lead adding two in the fourth. D'Amour doubled, Terry Norman was hit by a pitch, and they both came home on an error. The Vikings scored two more in the fifth and two more in the sixth. In the seventh, behind by one run, Grayling loaded the bases but couldn't get anyone home.

D'Amour led Grayling with three hits, 1 RBI and 2 runs scored. Methner had two hits, Mike Hickey had two hits and a RBI, and Dave Burr knocked in two RBIs.

Norman had one hit and a run scored, Joel Money had a hit and a RBI, and Jack Money added a hit and a run scored.

Marty Harris, a sophomore, opened the game on the mound and was tagged with the loss. Brad Trenary threw five innings in relief and did a good job holding the Onaway team, Wolcott said. Wolcott said Grayling hit well against Onaway's starting pitcher, who recorded a couple of no-hitters last year.

In a second game, not recorded in league standings, Grayling won 5-2.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

Where have the Snow Buntings gone? North, that's where, as far as you can go and still keep your feet dry. It wasn't but a few days ago when large flocks of the nearly white birds were to be seen wheeling against a leaden sky over snowcovered fields. There are still some around, but considering where they nest, I suspect an early start is in order, since Northern Alaska and Greenland are the ultimate destinations. When the winter gales next howl across the tundras, they will be back to feed on the weed seeds available in fields.

They do change color with the seasons. In the summer their backs and part of the tails are black, but by the time they reach us early in the winter, most of the black has turned to brown. This sparrow-sized bird will nest on the tundra where scant vegetation and rocks will conceal the nest with its four to six white eggs with rather conspicuous reddish-brown spots around the larger end of the egg. In the nesting area they feed largely on insects, but here it is on weed seeds or, if you wish to play host to as many as 200 or 300, they will eat scratch feed or cracked corn. According to one source, they move as far south as Pennsylvania during the winter, but this depends on the severity of the weather. Considering what has been going on with the weather, maybe they will nest here this year.

New Lottery Game Starts

Featuring a $700,000 Grand Prize on seven Mondays during the game, the Michigan Lottery's new instant tickets, "Lucky 7," go on sale Tuesday, April 27, 1982.

Tickets have nine playing spots concealed under an artistic design involving 4-leaf clovers, horseshoes, and the "M&L" logo. If exactly 3-7's appear in any one vertical column or horizontal row, the ticket wins the indicated amount. If exactly 3-7's appear in either diagonal of the ticket, the holder of that ticket is eligible to participate in one of the Lucky 7 weekly Grand Drawings.

The game consists of approximately 31,050,000 tickets printed for distribution.

TANDEM SWINGING—Swinging together on a bright spring afternoon last Friday were 10-year-old twins Melanie and Melissa Howlet, of Grayling. They were enjoying the beautiful weather during Easter vacation at the city park next to the mill pond.

Grayling Elementary School News

This week Ms. Yates and her class are moving to a portable. They are taking all their things out of the room they are in now and moving them into the portable. By Dusty Smith, 5th grade.

Mrs. Larson's first grade class has a new student. His name is Mike Frankeburger. He moved from Traverse City. He said he likes it here better. He also said it is easier work. For Easter they made Easter baskets. Every day Mrs. Elliott comes in and helps the classroom. She helped them make the Easter baskets. By Jannice LaDuke and Sheryl Klinger, 5th grade.

Friday, April 2, Ms. Len came into Mrs. Bovee's fifth grade class to show us how to make Ukrainian Easter eggs. She made her eggs with a kriska, wax, a candle, and dye. The eggs she made were beautifully decorated with yellow, white, red, and black dyes. The eggs we made turned out pretty good, but not half as good as Ms. Len's. We had a really good time making our eggs: we even tried an electric kriska. By Clark Moore, fifth grade.

In Mrs. Fleming's class they are reading about cities and mainly about Morristown in social studies. In English they are talking about committees and chairmen. They drill on subtraction and addition in math, but most of the time they do multiplication problems. In reading some of the students have taken the level 6, 7, and 9 test. Most of the children passed their test, but a few children need to concentrate on their comprehension skills before they go on to the next level. By Amy Denton, Betty Partello and Debbie Jones, 5th grade.

Mr. Hatfield's fourth grade class received a very nice gift on April 22 when Mary A. Allen donated these books to our room: a 17-volume set of Pictorial Encyclopedias of American History; a 20-volume set of Young People's Science Encyclopedias; and a 10-volume set of Young Readers Library by Life. The fourth grade would like to thank Mary Allen very much for the gift.

/s/ Jeannette J. Kitchen, Chairperson

Resolution on the Davis-Bacon Act read to the Board; MOTION by Harland, second by Miller, to adopt the following Resolution. Roll Call: All (7) Ayes. Carried.

RESOLUTION:

WHEREAS, the federal Davis-Bacon Act was passed to ensure that adequate wages are to be paid for labor costs on construction projects which use federal funds; and,

WHEREAS, application of the Davis-Bacon Act to a local area results in assignment of wage rates to the County or other labor market area; and,

WHEREAS, comparison of the wages as assigned by the Davis-Bacon Act for the occupations in question with legitimate wage studies as performed by other government sources indicates that Davis-Bacon Act rates are normally much higher & not in fact, reflective or consistent with wage rates in the County of Crawford; and,

WHEREAS, this discrepancy creates the following problems when applied to the County of Crawford, all directly attributable to the Davis-Bacon Act as the primary cause: Unnecessary & unwarranted expense to the taxpayers supporting the project as total project costs become inflated to cover unjustifiable wage rates; Hardship to the local unit making application due to magnified resultant match funds necessary to cover the resultant higher project costs; Potentially fewer laborer positions hired to conserve on eventual total labor costs; Further expense to the taxpayers if tax-supported training programs which are based on wages paid are to be used to train for the laborer positions to be hired; Creation of potentially unfair, distorted wage rates in an area which causes anger, frustration & potential turnover among similarly employed individuals who are not involved in the project; and,

WHEREAS, The Board of Commissioners in the County of Crawford, State of Michigan, gives public notification that it is cognizant of the above-noted problems & concerned over this mandated intrusion of unjustified wage rates into the local labor market structure;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS RESOLVED, that the Board of Commissioners of the County of Crawford, State of Michigan, does hereby object to application of Davis-Bacon rates of wages which have no basis in the local labor market structure; and,

FURTHER, BE IT RESOLVED, that this Board of Commissioners supports modification of the Davis-Bacon Act, its federal executive orders, data-gathering procedures thereof, & any correspondent state legislation to more accurately take into consideration, the true & accurate wages to be paid for a County or labor market area affected by a project which demands application of the Davis-Bacon Act.

Resolution on Fair & Equitable Taxation;

MOTION by Harland, second by Neilson, to adopt the following Resolution; with copies to our Legislators, MAC, All Townships in our County, & the Crawford County Taxpayers Association. Roll Call: All (7) Ayes. Carried.

RESOLUTION:

WHEREAS, the State of Michigan is required by law to provide legislation guaranteeing fair & equitable taxation of property; and,

WHEREAS, Boards of Commissioners, Equalization Directors, Township Supervisors & Assessors, are sworn to do likewise within the rules, regulations, guidelines & legal decisions resulting from such legislation; and,

WHEREAS, the depressed economic conditions in the State of Michigan are so severe as to attract national attention; and,

WHEREAS, present tax legislation is not only not programmed to consider these grave economic realities, but in fact restricts equity & is serving to encourage the erosion of Michigan's economy;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that Crawford County requests the Legislature of the State of Michigan to forthrightly & immediately, take appropriate action to assure equitable solutions to the problems & concerns set forth in items A through C of this Resolution; (A) Whereas, Article IX, Sec. 3, of the Constitution of Michigan, requires that true cash value be used as the basis for assessment of property, & it is noted that assessments may at times be based upon a market value or a distorted cash value rather than the true cash value due to the following considerations: (1) Sales agreements known as "contract sales" which may reflect a market value based upon sales terms rather than true cash value. (2) "Creative sales agreements" which may reflect a market value based upon the unique terms of the sale, including interest & other considerations, in addition to true cash value. (3) Sales agreements which may include the transfer of both real & personal property with minimal identification or separation of the respective values of such properties.

AND WHEREAS, the uniformity of taxation as required by Article IX, Sec. 3, of the Constitution of Michigan has been legally interpreted as applying to rate of taxation, to mode of assessment, & to equity for the individual taxpayer, based upon the true cash value of the taxpayer's property; and,

WHEREAS, it is noted that assessments may not always meet the constitutionally required uniformity as a result of the following considerations: (1) The time span of sales studies. (2) The use of both sales & appraisals in the determination of assessment ratios. (3) Small sampling data available for determining true cash value trends & assessment ratios. (4) The use of averages in computations with a wide variation in data included. (5) Geographical, environmental & economic factors affecting true cash value.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Legislature of the State of Michigan, is hereby requested to place a freeze on all assessments for the ad valorem taxation of property until such a time when conformance with the requirements of the Constitution of Michigan, 1963, is assured through legislative action.

B. WHEREAS, the complexity & the number of legislative enactments pertaining to the ad valorem taxation of property in the State of Michigan & the massive volume of rules, regulations, published guidelines, & legal opinions resulting from these enactments, tend to restrict accessibility & interpretation of said data;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that Crawford County requests the Legislature of the State of Michigan to review & evaluate current laws, rules, regulations, published guidelines & legal opinions regarding the ad valorem taxation of property in the State of Michigan, & as an outcome of this action, draft corrective and/or other legislation within defined time parameters to provide clear, concise & specific guidelines & procedures to be used in assessing property & the levying of property taxes in a fair & equitable manner. It is further requested that said legislation include provisions to assure reasonable accessibility & reasonable ease of interpretation of all data pertaining to the ad valorem taxation of property.

C. WHEREAS, an increase in assessed value of property as finally equalized, & the rate & yield of local ad valorem taxation of property for a unit of local government may often substantially reduce State budget obligations for allocations of funds to that unit of local government; and,

WHEREAS, said reductions results in a shift of the State's spending from said unit of local government to other State obligations or priorities; and,

WHEREAS, reasonable accessibility of information regarding the impact of property assessments upon State budget expenditures is assured through the Freedom of Information Act;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Legislature of the State of Michigan is requested to require the Department of Management & Budget to annually publicly disclose in a timely & simple manner the true & full impact of increased property values upon State budget considerations.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that at such a time when it becomes apparent that concerns outlined in this Resolution cannot be resolved, or are not being resolved through the Legislative process within reasonable time parameters, Crawford County shall seek support of other local units of government of the State of Michigan for the purpose of initiating legal action for consideration of said concerns.

Jeannette J. Kitchen, Chairperson
Attorney Owen Cummings from Municipal Risk Authority stopped in to advise the Board of an update on the lawsuit at the County jail.

Insurance update by Commissioners Harland & Miller;

MOTION by Harland, second by Mattis, that the Board amend the Motion of 1/12/82 regarding the County Commissioners Health Insurance, to read: that Health Insurance benefits will be provided by the County, for any active County Commissioner effective 1/1/83. Roll Call: All (7) Ayes. Carried.

Union Negotiations continued by Harland; The AFSCME Union Steward Bill Borchers in attendance at this time.

Commissioner Harland asked for clarification of several issues of the Union Steward. Prosecutor Huss advised the Board that there has been no violation of the contract in either area of his Secretary or the DSS employee.

Bob Smock appeared before the Board with an update on the Fish Hatchery project in the City of Grayling. He showed the Board a sketch of what they propose to do with the Hatchery. HELPFUL IDEAS FOR SUCCESSFUL RETIREMENT

Sharing
When two people arrive at that station where there is little left to do but grow old together, they should have learned a lot about "sharing."

As man and wife progress through life, they accumulate individual experience and expertise. It comes with the struggle for survival, in the process of child-rearing, with work responsibilities and through home management. In the best of marriages, responsibilities are shared. In the very best of marriages, all problems are shared, regardless of which partner has the responsibility for dealing with certain issues. In this way, life becomes a full learning experience for both individuals.

For many years business was exclusively the man's world. Women took care of the home and, in many instances, only the housekeeping chores. Men controlled the financial aspects. Times have changed, but we still see evidence now and then that things may not have changed enough for some people.

Many times a competent, capable woman, suddenly without a husband, discovers that she knows little about finances, about the family insurance, personal holdings, or liabilities. It matters not that she was content to let her husband handle these things or that he simply didn't take the time to keep her informed. She will face some difficult moments because matters of equal interest were not equally shared.

Sharing is thus more than spending time together and doing the same things at the same time. Sharing is sharing, today and tomorrow. Sharing is helping, even after the separation of death.

He went over the procedural steps taking place presently, county and state wide, in preparation for determining the S.E.V. figures for this year before a millage rate can be determined. He also reviewed the Headlee Amendment and the "Truth in Taxation Law" and the implications involved in connection with our local taxing units. He concluded by stating it would be impossible to recommend a millage rate until county and state assessment figures have been finalized. It is hoped that such information might be available sometime during the early part of April.

Dr. Diehrich presented a mid-year report on the status of the Crawford AuSable School District General Fund Budget. He stated the district is basically on schedule and, provided nothing unexpected surfaces before June 30, 1982, no deficit can be expected at the conclusion of this fiscal year. The Board of Education publicly commended all staff for their tremendous efforts in serving the district this year and making the best situation possible for the educational programs for the children of our district.

Mr. Lerg presented possible cost-saving plans that are being considered for implementation. Areas to be considered are in energy conservation measures, transportation, health insurance, state recapture provisions by using the Intermediate School District for state reimbursements, and the possibility of conducting a summer tax collection. He reviewed the current costs of such areas and the projected savings associated with each of them.

President Kathleen Burkley presented Mr. Ronald Fraser, Proprietor of the Grayling Holiday Inn, with a plaque honoring him for his total support of the district's educational programs by donating time and facilities for various projects of the district.

Mr. Lerg announced the Board of Education's two four-year term positions to be filled in the annual June election. He indicated that the petitions must be returned to Central Office by 4:00 p.m. on April 12, 1982.

Congress' Approval for Project ELF

Washington, D.C.—Northern Michigan Congressman Bob Davis says the Navy will have to get Congress' approval before making any changes in Project ELF enlarging the system.

In an effort to prevent the Navy from using the approval Congress will probably give them for the project as a "foot in the door" to a larger system, Davis amended the report language for the 1983 Defense Authorization bill specifying the requirement that the Navy return to Congress with any ideas about making the system bigger.

"The fear that the Navy will want to make Project ELF into something much larger once it began operating has always been at the forefront of opposition to the project," Davis said. "I wanted to make certain that if the project proceeds, this will not be a blank check for the Navy."

KCC Seminars Big Success

Jerre Lewis, coordinator and instructor of the Small Business Management Series at Kirtland Community College, reports that the winter management seminars were a big success, with approximately 44 persons attending the three one-hour Small Business Seminars on April 30, 1982. The objective of the seminars were to provide the owner/operator of a small business and the business student with information essential for the professional management and operation of a small business. Topics included planning, organization, directing, controlling, and motivational techniques. The seminars included two special field trips. The first one was to the K-Mart Store in West Branch, where Manager Gary Rossi presented a special management program on the operation of a K-Mart store. The second field trip was to McDonald's in West Branch, where Judith K. Lezotte, the owner/manager, gave a special management program on the operation of the McDonald's Restaurant. Mr. Roy Spangler of the Michigan State Cooperative Extension Service was a guest speaker on March 28th and presented a program on small business management for rural businesses. Kirtland will be offering new management seminars in the fall. For further information, contact Mr. Jerre Lewis, Business Education Department.

having been heard, and an af-

Spring Wildfire Season

As the snow leaves and warm air moves over Michigan, the risk of woodland fires increase. The sweet smells of spring are easily erased by the smoke of a wildfire. Every year, thousands of acres of woodland are devastated by fire.
The Forest Service,
Department of Natural Resources, and local fire agencies suppress these fires and it is costly. The fire danger is very changeable at this time of year because of rapidly changing weather patterns. It may rain one day and by dry and windy
the next.
As a safety precaution, burning permits are required. Under Michigan State Law, any time the ground is not snow covered, a person must have a burning permit unless the burning is done in a closed container with no larger than 3/4 inch openings.

Please Cooperate - This Law is Strictly Enforced! By not cooperating - the results can be devastating. Fire

Danger information can be obtained prior to burning by contacting your local Fire Warden, Forest Service, or Department of Natural Resources office.

Minimum requirements for home incinerators and debris burning for your protection are as follows:

1. Metal or masonry container in good condition with draft holes near bottom - no larger than 4 inches.
 2. Heavy screen mesh cover with holes no larger than 1/2 inch held down with brick or similar weight.
 3. Ground cleared and maintained to mineral soil at least 20 feet around incinerator.
 4. Burn after 5:00 p.m. for greater safety.
 5. Do NOT burn on windy days.
 6. Never leave your fire unattended.
 7. If your fire gets out of control, you are liable for firefighting costs and all other damages.
- If you see a neighbor burning on a dangerous day, do him a favor and tell them about the potential danger to his and your property. We are asking the cooperation of everyone in the prevention of forest fires. Help Prevent Forest Fires.

Cutting Costs in the Milk and Cheese Group

By Gail Edwards
Ext. Home Ec.
This group includes all forms of milk, cheese, yogurt, ice cream, ice milk and cottage cheese. Prices in this group can vary as much as the products, so it pays to do some comparison shopping. Here are some suggestions to make shopping easier:

- Stretch your milk dollar by using nonfat dry milk in cooking. Drink nonfat dry milk, or mix equal parts whole milk and nonfat dry milk for a lower cost beverage.
- Lowfat milk (2%) and skim milk are generally lower in price than whole milk but all have the same amount of calcium.
- Buying milk in large containers (half-gallon or gallon) may mean a savings of 10 cents or more per quart. Check the sell date on the container to make sure you can use this quantity before it spoils.
- Cheese is generally a more expensive dairy product but is a good source of calcium and protein and will add variety to your meals. Buy cheese in bulk rather than presliced, shredded or individually wrapped pieces.
- Cottage cheese, an excellent source of protein, is cheaper than aged cheeses and fits well into meals or snacks.
- Ice cream, ice milk and sherberts are high in price and calories. Choose instead more nutritious and less costly desserts, such as puddings or yogurt. Stretch puddings by adding rice or bread, and serve yogurt with fresh or canned fruit.
- Use nonfat dry milk to make your own pudding and hot cocoa mixes.

The old wagon wheel in the picture, leaning against the side wall of the old log shop, is fast becoming a relic of a departed era.

Time was when the blacksmith and wheelwright did a thriving business and the rumble of carts and wagons was a familiar sound in every community. Some of these old vehicles survive on the farms but they are fast disappearing.

The truck, trailer and tractor today are doing the farm work and hauling the farmer's produce to market. These have ushered in a new era in transportation.

The conditions of human life are thus constantly changing under the impetus of man's inventive genius. Age follows age in rapid succession and change is the order of the world. The only enduring things are the things of the mind and spirit. Love and hope and faith are eternal.

The Church ministers to the spiritual needs of man. It seeks to impart the principles of right living and teach men to love and honor God. These are the changeless and eternal things in a world of constant change and they are as necessary today for wholesome living as in ages past.

called C-Days during the month of May", declared Valerie Lehti, Chairman of the 1982 Cancer Crusade.

During C-Days volunteers will go door-to-door calling on their neighbors and friends with information about cancer's seven warning signals and the importance of regular health checkups.

"Since thousands of lives can be saved if cancer is diagnosed early and treated promptly, no one can afford to be without this information", Mrs. Lehti said. "That is why the volunteers will try and see that everyone in Crawford County will have that information."

"When an American Cancer Society volunteer visits you during C-Days, we urge you to find out about cancer's seven warning signals," Mrs. Lehti advised.
